

real weddings

Couples meet all kinds of ways. We introduce you to ten Dallas newlyweds who turned a spark into a special day.

Celebrating

ROSANNA MARTINEZ
& RASHAD ALKOZBARI

It was a race to the altar for Rosanna Martinez and Rashad Alkozbari. Twice. After dating long-distance for nine months, Rosanna relocated to Dallas after graduating from college and becoming engaged. In line with Muslim culture, the couple married soon after the engagement and then planned a Mexican Catholic wedding to take place at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton.

The Joule provided a perfect setting for belly dancers that riveted the guests and wedding party during the reception. With so much of their family members and friends abroad, Rosanna found the swanky hotel an intimate space to share their second wedding in two years.

Ceremony Site: St. Elizabeth Ann Seton | Photographer/Studio: Flashbox Photography | Bridal Gown Designer: Pronovias | Bridal Gown / Retailer: Bridal Closet | Hair & Makeup: Chiro Makeup, Courtney Phillips | Groom's Attire: Stanley Korshak | Bridesmaid Dresses Designer: Eliza J. | Bridesmaid Dresses Retailer: Nordstrom | Flowers: DiFiori | Reception Site: The Joule Hotel | Cake: The Joule Hotel
Band and/or DJ: Richie DiMeglio, It's Your Night Entertainment | Lighting: It's Your Night Entertainment | Videographer: Videos of Goodness